Initiated from the bequest of James Wambola Kiwi a local watercolourist, the James Kiwi Watercolour Prize was established and first exhibited at Wollongong City Gallery in October 1994 to highlight the techniques and subtleties of the watercolour medium.

Judges for the exhibition consist of a representative of Wollongong City Gallery, and two members of the Australian Watercolour Institute.

One prize of $2000

Conditions Of Entry

1. Entries are limited to one work per entrant and must be the original, unaided work of the entrant and have been completed in the twelve months prior to the exhibition date.
2. Entries must be executed using watercolour as the main medium.
3. A non-refundable entry fee of $20.00 must accompany each entry form.
4. The judges' decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
5. The Gallery reserves the right to select works for display in the exhibition.
6. Entries must be suitably framed and ready to hang with D-hooks attached
7. No entries may be removed during the exhibition.
8. Name, address and phone number of entrant and title of the work must be clearly marked on the back of the work.
9. The price of works which are for sale must be clearly marked on the back of the work.
10. A commission of 20% will be deducted from all sales.
11. Insurance is the full responsibility of the entrant. The Gallery will exercise all care but will accept no liability or responsibility for loss or damage of works.
12. Delivery and collection of works will be the full responsibility of the entrant. Works not collected by the date specified will be disposed of at the discretion of the Gallery.
